

People of the COE

The Sam Houston State University Office of the Provost announced Dr. Forrest Lane as one of two Faculty Administrative Fellows. The Faculty Administrative Fellows program provides an annual opportunity for tenured faculty to obtain administrative and leadership experience at the university level. Assisting the Office of the Provost with current or emerging issues impacting Academic Affairs and the university, Faculty Administrative Fellows focus on specific strategies to increase student success on campus. Congratulations Dr. Lane! Read more

Dr. Vickie Mitchell was recently appointed by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board to the THECB Advisory Council on Postsecondary Programs for Individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities. The term is a two-year appointment on the council. The purpose of the council is to review state and institutional policies and procedures to increase access, engage in outreach on postsecondary opportunities in Texas for individuals with IDD, and to collect and provide information on IDD programs in Texas to the state legislature. Congratulations Dr. Mitchell!

Bearkat Teacher, Elijah Taylor made the NBCDFW news! Elijah completed a full-circle, returning as a teacher to the same school district he graduated from. He graduated from Cedar Hill High School and returned as a fifth grade teacher at Collegiate Prep Elementary. Taylor has also published two books, a children's book titled "My Favorite Elementary," and a book of poems titled "As Life Happens." Congratulations, Elijah! Read the full article here
